RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On October 5, 2015, Ellyson Ostrovsky (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of receiving a seasonal influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 18, 2012. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 7, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent stated that a preponderance of the evidence establishes that petitioner’s injury is consistent with SIRVA, and that it was caused-in-fact by the flu vaccine she received on October 18, 2012. Id. at 4. Respondent further stated that she did not identify any other causes for petitioner's SIRVA, and that the records show petitioner has suffered the sequela of this injury for more than six months. Id. Respondent therefore agrees with petitioner that compensation should be awarded under the Vaccine Act. Id. at 4-5.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
